Scenic Roadway - Little River Rd

Little River Road is one of the most scenic byways in Great Smoky Mountains National Park. This 18 mile paved road parallels the beautiful Little River from Sugarlands Visitor Center at the Gatlinburg entrance to the Park to Townsend, Tennessee.

Highlights of Little River Road include the cool mountain river, wildlife viewing, waterfalls, and wildflowers. Little River Road ventures off into Elkmont where you will find a large campground, the Historic Elkmont District, and thick floral & fauna.

In the Spring and Summer, Elkmont has an abundance of mountain laurel and rhododendron. In the Fall, you will enjoy the beauty of fall foliage.

On Little River Road you will find picturesque scenery at The Sinks. You will also pass Metcalf Bottoms which has a large picnic area on the river. Several popular hiking trailheads are along Little River Road, including Abrams Falls. Meigs Falls is one of the most favorite waterfalls.

Clingman's Dome

One of the most popular points of interest in the Smoky Mountains is Clingmans Dome. Vistas from Clingmans Dome are spectacular. On clear, pollution-free days, views expand over 100 miles and into seven states.

Clingmans Dome is Great Smoky Mountains National Park's highest point; 6,643 feet. It is the highest point in Tennessee and the second highest point east of the Mississippi. Located along the state-line ridge, it is half in North Carolina and half in Tennessee. The peak is accessible from driving Clingmans Dome Road for Newfound Gap (Hwy 441 between Gatlinburg TN and Cherokee NC). You will then walk a steep half-mile trail. A paved trail leads to a 54-foot observation tower.

The Appalachian Trail crosses Clingmans Dome, marking the highest point along its 2,144 mile journey.

Weather conditions change quickly at Clingmans Dome.
